The GURU-DAKSHTA/Faculty Induction Programme (FIP) is designed to provide comprehensive training for newly recruited faculty members, focusing on enhancing their professional capabilities across multiple domains.

Objectives of the Programme

- ❖ Pedagogical Innovation: To sensitize and motivate faculty to adopt learner-centered approaches, ICT-integrated learning, and modern pedagogic tools for teaching and assessment.
- ❖ Curriculum Reform: To enable faculty to implement curriculum reforms that aligns with the NEP 2020.
- ❖ Scientific Evaluation: To encourage the adoption of flexible and scientific evaluation processes designed to accurately assess the multiple skills and competencies of students.
- ❖ Institutional Excellence: To promote academic excellence, teaching innovation, research capabilities, and leadership skills within higher education institutions.
- ❖ Professional Development: To improve the overall professional capability and performance of teachers, ensuring they can deliver effective and high-quality learning experiences.

Expected Learning Outcomes

- ❖ Technology Integration: Faculty will be able to understand the potential of technology and integrate various ICT tools including AI tools into their teaching, learning, and evaluation practices.
- ❖ Curriculum Expertise: Faculty will gain a thorough understanding of curriculum design, Outcome-Based Learning (OBL), and the essential features of course creation and development in alignment with NEP 2020.
- ❖ Student Support and Counselling: Faculty will be equipped to manage student diversity effectively, deal with learner stress, and provide meaningful counselling to students.
- ❖ Research and Leadership: Faculty will understand the dynamics of academic leadership and be able to conduct ethical, interdisciplinary, and collaborative research.
- ❖ Values and Sustainability: Faculty will be able to integrate the knowledge systems, constitutional values, human rights, and Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) into their classroom teaching and research activities.
