Date: 7th to 12th September, 2026

Organized by
UGC-Malaviya Mission Teacher Training Centre
In Collaboration with
Department of Law
North-Eastern Hill University, Shillong

Objectives

The objective of the programme is to create awareness about the richness and relevance of Indian Knowledge Systems in contemporary education and society. The programme will also emphasize to introduce various dimensions of IKS such as philosophy, science, mathematics, Ayurveda, yoga, literature, law, etc. to the participants. It also aims to integrate IKS with modern education in line with the objectives of NEP 2020. Apart from the above the programme will promote value-based and holistic education, emphasizing on ethics, sustainability, and human well-being, so as to encourage preservation and dissemination of indigenous knowledge, languages, and cultural heritage. The Programme will also provide a platform for academic discussion and interaction among experts, researchers, faculty members, and students, to strengthen national identity, cultural pride, and appreciation of India's intellectual heritage and to imbibe the sense of National Integrity.

Key Points:

- Introduction to the concept, scope, and significance of Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) and their relevance in modern education and society.
- Awareness of indigenous practices Indian contributions in science, mathematics, astronomy, medicine, philosophy, law, literature, arts, and architecture.
